

Kingfisher Private School

Code of Honour

We are proud pupils of Kingfisher School and glorify God
and all of His creation;

As young citizens of our country, South Africa, we believe in responsible freedom and dignity for all people;

We respect all the cultures, religious and languages in our beautiful land;

We abhor discrimination of any kind whether it is against race, gender, religion, status or means;

We value and respect our parents and educators and all those guiding us on our journey to independence and adulthood;

We believe that knowledge and determination are the keys
to a promising future;

We believe in developing enquiring, curious and analytical minds to make informed judgements and form our own opinions;

We believe in respect, honesty, fairness, kindness and loyalty;

We conduct ourselves with goodness and valour in all situations;

We cherish our planet and all of nature and are aware of every carbon footprint we take;

We are positive about the future of our country and our part in making it a better place for every one;

We wear our uniform with pride because it unifies us as pupils of Kingfisher and symbolises what we stand for;

We will spread our wings and fly high as our school motto
inspires us:

It is not the wings, but the use
"Non penna, sed usus"
